Bechler Philosophical In Defeat.

Frank M. Bechler, one of the defeated candidates for county assessor at the recent primary election, writes Guy H. Herbert, the present incumbent of the office, as follows: Dear Guy and the boys: It's a long way to Tipperary, but Tipperary is only half way to the court house and the job I loved. The high cost of taxation is now the least of my troubles. I am for a just and equally proportioned campaign expense account. Bring some salt mackerel for bait and come up Salt Creek for a fishing picnic. Mr. Bechler made a clean campaign and impressed even those who could not vote for him that he was an entirely capable man and had he been better known in the county he would have made some of his opponents run for their money. —Roswell Evening News.

This much can be said of the wrist watch, that not a single one has been smashed in a barroom fight thus far.

If you know anything about psychology you can give some sort of mysterious answers to all fool questions.

More Paris gowns than ever are coming over, in which respect the horrors of war have received a setback.

It'll take some time for a wounded soldier who has married a nurse to find out for certain whether he's a war victim.

The man of the hour is the one who can think of a scheme of national taxation which will not be objectionable to anybody.

There are people who wouldn't admit that they were happy if happiness were to break out all over them, like the measles.

Not His Fault.

"Please, mister, will you give me a job shoveling the snow off your sidewalk so I can earn enough money to get a bite to eat?"

"You can see for yourself the snow is all shoveled off. Why didn't you come around yesterday?"

"I would have, mister, only there was so much snow I couldn't get here."

LIVESTOCK

Kansas City, Monday, May 15, 1916. Light receipts of cattle after Monday last week turned the market upward, and sales Thursday were 25 to 40 higher than Monday on killing grades. Good grades of stock steers and feeders held up steady, but breeding cattle declined 10 to 25 cents, and are materially lower than a few weeks ago. The week closed with killers empty handed, and ready for liberal run this week. Receipts today were moderate at 9600 head, and the market was a fast one, strong to 15 higher than close of last week, 30 to 50 cents above a week ago on killing cattle, stockers and feeders firm. Prime heavy native steers sold at $9.50 to $9.65, good natives $9 and upwards, choice pulp steers $9.25 to $9.50, several strings within that range, and common pulpers are down to $8.80, fed cattle from the panhandle country at $8.70 to $9.35. Steer prices averaged highest of the year today. Cows and heifers do not show quite as much strength as steers, but best cows sell up to 8.25, heifers $9.50, bulls $7.50. Stockers and feeders held steady, sales up to $8.50. A string of three year old steers was bought in the Panhandle last week at $64 a head, from which two cars of the tails were cut out and were on the market here today, 861 lbs average at $8.50, or over $75 gross making a good shipping profit. Hogs made gains at the end of last week, and the market is 10 to 15 higher today, receipts 13,000 head. Top was $10.05, bulk 9.80 to 10.00.

Kansas City, Thursday, May 18.—Hog receipts 7,000; market higher. Bulk, $9.95@9.80; heavy 9.75@9.85; light, 9.50@9.75; pigs, 6.50@9.00.

Cowboy's Reunion.

Las Vegas, N. M., May 19.—Providence and barbed wire fences will take care of New Mexico cattle during the period beginning July 4 and ending well after midnight on the morning of July 8, for there won't be a ranch owner or hand within a radius of 500 miles of Las Vegas, New Mexico, who will be working on those days. The whole gang, accompanied by their wives, kiddoes, best girls and friends, will be in Las Vegas to attend the annual roundup of the New Mexico Cowboys' Reunion Association. And the general public—the folks who never had on a pair of chaps in their lives—will be here to witness the exhibition of roping, riding, steer-bulldogging and stage coach and chuckwagon racing that will fill the four days, beginning the fourth and ending the seventh.

Such noted former cowboys as Governor McDonald of New Mexico and Mayor Thompson of Chicago will be here to take part in the festivities, and will be central figures at the big Cowboys' dance and in the wild west parade.

There will be something doing every night as well as every day. The railroads will offer special rates from all over the southwest. The cowboy events will be held in the association's new park, which is reached by street car, jitney or sole leather. It's so near town that the transportation cost will amount to almost nothing.
